

RUSSIANS GIVE THEIR ENEMIES NO REST

HAMMERING AT LAST OBSTACLE BETWEEN THEM AND HUNGARY

BREAKING THRU THE CARPATHIAN PASSES, THE CZAR'S HOSTS WILL SWEEP ON TO BUDAPEST

Petrograd, April 5.—With Russian forces holding the Beskid pass and the Austrians in retreat southward, the forces of the czar are being hurled at the defenses of the Uszok pass today to clear away the last obstacle to a general advance into Hungary. No rest is given night or day to the Austro-German forces. The Russian steam roller never operated with greater force than in the great battle raging just north of Uszok pass.

War office officials assert that it is not within the power of the Teutonic troops to withstand the attacks they are undergoing. "On to Budapest" will be the battle cry of the Russians when Uszok is captured.

RESULT OF SUNDAY'S RAID
Bulgarians Carried Away Many Captives and Much Booty

London, April 5.—Late dispatches report about 400 killed in Saturday's fighting between Serbs and Bulgars. The Bulgars carried away a number of captives and a great quantity of war booty.

ATTACKED GREEKS ALSO
London, April 5.—It is unofficially reported Bulgaria has apologized to Greece for the recent Bulgarian raid into Greek territory.

WACAHOOOTA

Wacahoota, March 31.—The weather last week was extremely cold for so late in the season and the white frost of the 22nd killed a large percent of the early vegetables. But most of the farmers there are now harvesting and planting their vegetables over at once. So far we see no injury to the peach and orange crop.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Curry entertained a few friends at supper at their home Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frasier Stokes, of Herkimer, N. Y. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Stokes there was Mrs. M. R. Beck, of Palatka, Mrs. C. G. Mixon, of Gainesville, Mrs. Sara Shuler, of Batesburg, S. C. All are visitors here now and Miss Rosalie Smith and Messrs. Cedrick and Clarence Smith.

A delightful fish fry and picnic was given on the shores of the picturesque Johnson Lake last Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stokes. Owing to the severe cold weather it was quite late when the crowd assembled. Quite a nice string of fish were caught and fried over the camp fire, hot tomato and potatoes fried to a turn, and coffee with the many other tempting edibles the lunch basket held. A large log heap furnished plenty of heat and the crowd enjoyed talking and playing cards and rock, while a few braved the cold and enjoyed a ride on the placid waters. Those from a distance not already mentioned as visiting here were Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Edwards, of Irvine, Mrs. W. J. Edwards and two little sons, of Ocala, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mixon, Mrs. Lyles and daughter and Dr. C. G. Mixon, of Gainesville.

Mrs. W. J. Edwards and children, of Ocala, visited Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. V. P. Smith, until Sunday. Mr. Edwards motored over from Ocala after them Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Frasier Stokes left Thursday to visit relatives in Rochelle and Gainesville until Sunday when Mr. Stokes left for Herkimer, N. Y. and Mrs. Stokes returned to Wacahoota to visit a few days more before she leaves for Batesburg, S. C.

Mrs. C. S. Mixon and little daughter returned to their home in Gainesville Thursday after a pleasant visit to friends here. She was accompanied home by Mrs. M. R. Beck, who will remain in the University City till Sunday.

Mr. Dick Hodson, Mr. Geo. Gibbons and Miss Mamie Gibbons, of Archer, autoed thru here en route to Micanopy Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Epperson and son, of Williston, were week end visitors to Mrs. L. M. Smith.

Mr. J. W. Bradley had the misfortune to lose a nice horse Friday.

Mrs. J. D. Watkins and Miss Clara Fleming, of Gainesville, were Sunday afternoon callers at Mrs. V. P. Smith's.

Mr. J. O. Tyson made a business visit to Gainesville last Wednesday.

SUBS HAD A GOOD SUNDAY

SUNK THREE OF THE ALLIES' MERCHANT SHIPS

MRS. WALTER HOOD INJURED

Mrs. Walter Hood was quite seriously injured yesterday afternoon in a most unusual manner. Dr. and Mrs. Hood went for a ride in their car out the Shady Grove road and were crossing over to the Pyles road. While passing by a field, in which they saw and called to Mr. Gaskin, a farmer living there, Dr. Hood glanced at his wife and saw that she had fainted and was lying back in the seat, unconscious. He had just heard a great racket on or about the car, but saw nothing. He stopped the car, jumped out and called to Mr. Gaskin to come quickly. When he came, the doctor told him that Mrs. Hood had been hurt in some way that he could not understand in the short time since speaking to him. The doctor thought by her looks and actions that she was dead or dying. She had no pulse and did not seem to be breathing and her hands were purple. Mr. Gaskin told the doctor he knew what was the matter, that the big live oak post lying nearby had been struck by the car, a few over inside and struck Mrs. Hood. This proved to be the case, and then it was found that she was bleeding from a wound in her temple where the timber struck her. Mr. Gaskin got in the car and they quickly drove to his house, where Mrs. Hood was given such aid as could be administered and after while revived. Dr. Hood then returned to town. On the way to the city Mrs. Hood partly revived but could remember nothing after speaking to Mr. Gaskin. She was taken home, Dr. E. Van Hood was called and the two brothers stayed with her all night. Mrs. Hood was only partially conscious through the night but this morning was rational. She was taken to the hospital this afternoon where she will be watched very carefully but it is not thought that her condition will develop into anything serious. An examination will be made to see if the bones of the temple are fractured as soon as it is deemed advisable. Dr. Hood said that the place they were passing was in a deep rut made by teams and cars passing. That he saw, without noticing it especially that a post or small log lay by the side of the road, and its end seemed to have been in the rut, but he did not think so then. The car struck the end of the post, it flew over and struck the top of the door of the car, came on over inside and struck Mrs. Hood and rebounded before Dr. Hood saw it, but Mr. Gaskin upon coming to the car realized at once what had happened.

CONFERENCE IN CHATTANOOGA

CLOSED WITH SELECTION OF DIXIE HIGHWAY COMMISSION

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 4.—Selection of the route of the projected Dixie highway from Chicago to Miami, Fla., was left to a commission of fourteen men by the conference of governors and road advocates which met here yesterday, to launch the movement for the construction of the roadway. Two commissioners each are to be appointed by the governors of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Florida, the states through which the road will extend.

PRESIDENT APPROVES OF THE PLAN

President Wilson was thanked in a resolution for his interest in the highway as expressed in a telegram to Congressman Moon of Chattanooga, which was read at the opening session.

ENDED WITH BIG EATS

The importance of the Dixie highway as an impetus to road building and industry in the seven states was touched upon in addresses last night at the banquet to the governors and delegates with which the convention ended.

C. C. HOBBS

Mrs. E. G. Peek received a wire today announcing the death of her brother, Mr. C. C. Hobbs at his home in Hinton, W. Va. Mr. Hobbs was a railroad man and Mrs. Peek did not know that he had been sick. The message did not state the cause of his death.

MRS. GARNER

Mrs. Garner, aged 86 years, died last night at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. N. A. Nix at Martin. Mrs. Garner came to Martin from Orlando two years ago. She leaves a son, Mr. Will Garner at Tampa. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at Morrison. Willbur Smith with E. C. Jordan & Co., is in charge.

WILLARD WAS THE WINNER

JESSE'S YOUNG BLOOD TOO MUCH FOR JACK

RUSHING TACTICS OF THE WHITE MAN TOOK THE FIGHT IN TWENTY-SIXTH ROUND

Havana, April 5.—Noon—Partly cloudy, cool, no indications of rain. Both sides confident of winning. Jim Jeffries and Tommy Burns declare Willard is a sure winner. John Sullivan and Bob Fitzsimmons see nobody but Johnson.

Five hundred troops are guarding the arena to prevent disorders.

The betting is generally eight to five with Johnson the favorite. These odds will probably prevail at the ringside. Betting is inactive and probably not over $30,000 will change hands. It is estimated that 20,000 people will witness the fight. Receipts about $100,000. About a thousand women will be present.

BOTH MEN CONFIDENT

Havana, April 5.—1:03 p. m.—Both men enter the ring at Havana confident, one of winning the championship, the other of retaining it. Early betting favors the negro, with the odds six to five.

Long before the fight started 17,000 people had gathered at the ringside. All of official Cuba is represented, including President Menocal. Hundreds of women are in attendance.

Willard says, "I am fit." Johnson says, "I'll be there all the way."

NINTH ROUND

Willard assumed the aggressive. Johnson cut Willard's ear. Johnson's blows lacked steam. The crowd shouted, "Kill the black bear." Johnson rallied and sent hard blows to the stomach. Willard's left cut Johnson's mouth and brought blood. Johnson rushed Willard to the ropes.

TENTH ROUND

Johnson came from his corner slowly. Willard landed lefts to the face. Johnson landed on body and jaw, staggered Willard with right chop.

FOURTEENTH ROUND

TWENTY-FIFTH ROUND

Johnson apparently thought he could not knock Willard out. He was trying for a decision by points. Willard joined Johnson over the heart. Sent a fast left to the jaw forced fast pace; landing repeatedly. Johnson dropped heavily to seat at the sound of the gong.

TWENTY-SIXTH ROUND

In this round, Johnson took the count, and the supremacy of the ring, after five years, returned from the black race to the white.

Willard opened with a body smash, clinched. Willard rushed, slammed left and rights to the body. Willard sent in a terrific right swing to the jaw and Johnson was knocked out. The crowd rushed into the ring and menaced Johnson. The soldiers on guard cleared the ring and protected the fighters.

OVERTOOK ONE OF THE OFFENDERS

For some months several families in the eastern part of the city have been missing jewelry and other valuables from their homes, the apparently there had been no forcible entry into the house.

Chief Frank Adams was notified and given a partial list of the missing articles. Last week he located a number of the stolen items in the house of a colored woman in the first ward, and a warrant was taken out for her arrest. Sheriff Galloway arrested Amy Conkley Friday, and she will have a preliminary trial tomorrow before Judge Smith.

Besides the jewelry, a number of souvenirs in the shape of beads, centerpieces, etc., gathered during travels in Egypt and other foreign lands, were found in Amy's effects. These were identified by the owners. All the missing articles have not yet been recovered, the officers believe they have clues as to their whereabouts.

Judge Smith held the scales of justice this forenoon in ten cases against as many colored men who were arrested at Lowell Saturday night by the deputies from the sheriff's office. Four were found guilty of gambling and fined $10 and costs each. Four were found guilty of carrying concealed weapons and fined $100 each or six months at hard labor. One was found guilty of illicit selling of liquor and was fined $100 or six months at hard labor.

Gen. W. J. Ralston of the Good Samaritan Army, who has been in Ocala for the past few weeks getting the mission work under way, left this afternoon for Detroit, the national headquarters of the organization. He will return to Ocala in October.

Friends of Mr. Roy Nixon, a former Ocala high school pupil will be sorry to learn that for the present he has had to give up his college course at Emory College, in Macon, on account of his eyes. Mr. Nixon has returned to his home in Tallahassee.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the tax assessment roll for the city of Ocala for the year 1915 is completed as the same will be presented to the city council of the said city.

The said tax roll will be open for inspection during office hours at the city clerk's office from this date until the 2nd Tuesday in April, being the 13th day of said month, on which date at 8 o'clock p. m. the city council will sit as an equalization board to hear complaints against assessments as made by the city tax assessor and to correct assessments of value of property. All complaints must be made to the city council in writing on or before the date aforesaid.

This the 2nd day of April, 1915.
